Lagu penuh makna, penyemangat hidup dan
mengajak ke perubahan
mindset yang lebih matang.
Yuk kita share di platform-platform media sosial.
Sudah terlalu banyak lagu
uwu-uwuan, padahal hidup bukan cuma tentang itu.

----- Sayyid Rahman

Aku tipe yang jarang
banget dengerin musik.
Tapi pas denger sekilas
reffnya aja, langsung
pengen dengerin versi
full-nya. Di play berulang auto bikin semangat.

Itu adalah dua dari ratusan komen untuk lagu Aku Baru yang diluncurkan secara resmi pada tanggal 18 November 2021. Karya kolaborasi PeaceGen, Bondan Prakoso dan Rhaya Flicks ini dibuat sebagai bagian kampanye dari Frosh Project, yaitu program PeaceGen yang mempromosikan empati dan berpikir kritis untuk anak muda.

Di balik kekuatan lirik dan musik Aku Baru ada cerita panjang dibaliknya yang cukup berliku. Perlu berminggu-minggu untuk menyamakan frekuensi, hingga menemukan baris-baris lirik yang kuat secara musikal tapi juga bisa mawadahi pesan empati dan berpikir kritis yang menjadi inti dari program Frosh. Lirik lagu ini setidaknya mengalami lima kali revisi, berevolusi dari satu versi ke versi berikutnya, hingga yang bisa dinikmati kini.

"Aku yang dulu, sang penentu kebenaran, tanpa ruang warna berbeda, hanya hitam dan putih"

Adalah salah satu bait yang hadir di detik-detik akhir, yang berusaha mengakomodir pesan berpikir kritis dan empati. Hampir setiap kata, kalimat, dan bait diperhitungkan baik-baik. Bukan hanya sisi artistik tapi juga pesan yang ingin disampaikan.

Ini bukan pertama kalinya PeaceGen menggunakan lagu sebagai medium menyampaikan pesan. Tetapi Aku Baru menjadi berbeda karena melibatkan Bondan sebagai seorang musisi yang memiliki audiens yang luas. Diharapkan pesan ini bisa sampai kepada audiens yang lebih luas juga.

Karena salah satu rekomendasi dari riset seputar tentang narasi perdamaian bahwa narasi perdamaian masih berputar dalam filter buble atau berbicara hanya pada audiens yang itu-itu juga. Melalui kolaborasi dengan Bondan ini diharapkan pesan perdamaian bisa bergema lebih luas.

1 Selain peluncuran Aku Baru, pada bulan November juga tepatnya tanggal 25 November 2021 bertepatan dengan Hari Anti Kekerasan Terhadap Perempuan, PeaceGen melalui program K-Hub menggelar webinar mengangkat tema perempuan dan ekstremisme.

Menghadirkan tiga orang perempuan yang berkiprah dalam sektor pencegahan ekstremisme kekerasan dan perempuan. Erni Kurniati, periset dari Division for Applied Social Psychology Research (DASPR) bercerita tentang beragam motif dan latar belakang perempuan yang dulu berperan sebagai supporter dalam aksi kekerasan ekstrem, bergeser menjadi aktor.

Erni juga membagikan praktik baik DASPR dalam membangun daya lenting dalam keluarga (family resilience) dalam mencegah kekerasan ekstrem. Rifana Meika Periset dari Yayasan Prasasti Perdamaian (YPP) mengangkat sudut lain dari topik ini, yaitu sudut lembaga masyarakat. Rifana membagikan cerita dan peran YPP dalam pendampingan napiter dan advokasi di sektor lapas.

Webinar ini dipungkas oleh Rubby Khalifah yang sudah malang melintang dalam membangun peran perempuan dalam kerja-kerja perdamaian. Sehingga webinar ini selain membantu audiens untuk memahami masalah. Juga diajak untuk bersikap optimis dan proaktif dalam merancang solusi.

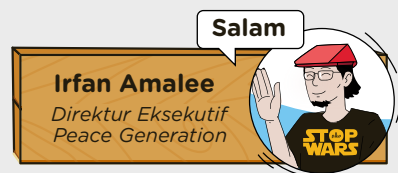

Masih dalam tema kekerasan ekstrem, pada tanggal 29 November 2021, PeaceGen berkesempatan membedah buku terbaru dari Jim Batton, salah seorang Agent of Peace (AoP) pegiat perdamaian yang merintis PeaceGen di Banjarmasin.

Penulis berkebangsaan Amerika ini telah menulis tiga buku bertema terorisme dan ekstremisme. Someone Has To Die mengajak pembacanya untuk memahami masalah ekstremisme melalui sebuah novel fiksi yang beberapa bagiannya terinspirasi oleh kisah nyata. Buku ini menjadi alternatif bagi publik yang ingin memahami masalah terorisme dengan cara yang lebih renyah.

Angin segar di bulan November berhembus dari dunia pendidikan. Kemendikbud meluncurkan modul pendidikan kebhinekaan yang akan dilatihkan secara massif kepada guru-guru se-Indonesia. Kami sangat bangga karena PeaceGen menjadi bagian dari proses ini.

Kami terlibat dalam proses pembuatan modul dan memasukkan pendekatan serta media pembelajaran PeaceGen kepada modul tersebut. Dengan media dan pendekatan kreatif, diharapkan modul dan training ini dapat membekali guru-guru seluruh Indonesia menyebarkan perdamaian dengan mengasyikkan.

Songs are full of meaning, encouraging life, and inviting a more mature mindset. Let's share them on social media platforms. There are already too many romance songs, even though life is not just about that!

----- Sayyid Rahman

I'm the type who rarely listens to music. But when I hear the chorus, I immediately want to listen to the full version. Playing it over and over again makes me excited.

----- Ulfa Putri

Those are two of hundreds of comments for the song Aku Baru that officially launched on November 18, 2021. This collaboration of PeaceGen, Bondan Prakoso, and Rhaya Flicks to campaign the Frosh Project, the PeaceGen program promotes empathy and critical thinking for young people.

There is a long and winding story behind the power of the lyrics and music. First, it took weeks of equalizing the frequency and then, finding lines of poetry that were musically strong and contained the messages of empathy and critical thinking at the core of the Frosh program. Next, the lyrics were revised five times, evolving from one version to another. Finally, we can enjoy the completion of Aku Baru.

"The old me, the determiner of truth, with no distinct color space, only black and white"

One of the stanzas that came at the last second tries to accommodate the message of critical thinking and empathy. We compose every word, sentence, and stanza carefully so that the lyrics are not only artistic but the message is delivered.

This is not the first time PeaceGen has used a song as a medium to convey a message. However, Aku Baru is different from other PeaceGen songs. We involve Bondan as a musician who has a broad audience. We hope the message will reach a wider audience.

One of the recommendations from research about the peace narrative is that it still revolves in the bubble filter or speaks only to the same audience. Through this collaboration, we hope the message of peace can spread more widely.

1 In addition to “Aku Baru,” on November 25, 2021, we organized a webinar on women and extremism. The implementation of the webinar is to commemorate Anti-Violence Against Women Day. We presented three women who participated in preventing violent extremism against women.

Erni Kurniati, a researcher from the Division for Applied Social Psychology Research, tells about the various motives and backgrounds of women who used to act as supporters in extreme violent acts, but have shifted to become actors.

Erni also shared the excellent practice of her foundation in building family resilience in preventing extreme violence. Rifana Meika, a researcher from the Yayasan Prasasti Perdamaian, raises another angle on this topic, namely the point of view of the community institution. Rifana shared stories and the foundation's role in assisting convicts and advocating in the prison sector.

Also, we invited Rubby Khalifah, who has had a lot of experience building women's roles in peace work. She helped the audience to understand the problem and encouraged them to be optimistic and proactive in designing solutions.

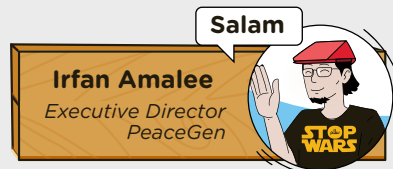

Still on the theme of extreme violence, on November 29, 2021, PeaceGen had the opportunity to review the latest book from Jim Batton, an Agent of Peace (AoP) and peace activist who pioneered PeaceGen in Banjarmasin. Jim is an American writer and has written three books on terrorism and extremism themes.

Someone Has To Die is the title of the book. The book encourages readers to understand the problem of extremism through a fictional novel whose parts inspire audiences. This book is an alternative for the public who wants to understand the issue of terrorism in a more transparent way.

A fresh breeze in November blows from the world of education. The Ministry of Education and Culture has launched a diversity education module for teachers throughout Indonesia. We are very proud that PeaceGen was a part of this process.

We were involved in the module creation process and incorporated PeaceGen's learning media approach. We hope the module and training can equip teachers to spread peace excitingly with media and creative methods.

AoP Gathering:

1 Temu Kangen Sekaligus Bermain Board Game PeaceBaker bersama PeaceGen Chapter Purwokerto

AoP Gathering rutin dilaksanakan setiap bulannya, termasuk di PeaceGen Chapter Purwokerto. Kegiatan ini akhirnya terlaksana setelah tiga bulan lamanya tertunda karena adanya peraturan Pemberlakuan Pembatasan Kegiatan Masyarakat (PPKM) level dua di Purwokerto dan sekitarnya.

Sebenarnya AoP Purwokerto terdiri dari berbagai daerah lintas Purwokerto, termasuk Purbalingga, Cilacap, dan Banjarnegara. Dikarenakan daerahnya berdekatan, maka mereka ikut bergabung dengan PeaceGen Chapter Purwokerto.

AoP Gathering dilaksanakan pada hari Minggu, 17 November 2021 di Cafe Koi Bobosan Purwokerto. Anak muda Purwokerto pasti sudah tidak asing lagi dengan cafe ini saking terkenalnya.

AoP Gathering:

1 Morning Reflection dan Bermain Board Game PeaceBaker

Kegiatan dimulai dari pukul 09.00 WIB yang diawali dengan morning reflection dengan input 'Gendu-gendu rasa lama tak jumpa'. Tujuan dari morning reflection ini untuk saling mengetahui kabar kita masing-masing.

Kami sangat bersyukur karena morning reflection berjalan dengan khidmat dan sangat lepas, terlebih ketika saling berbagi dan mendengarkan perasaan masing-masing. Mengingat beberapa bulan lagi kita akan berhadapan dengan tahun baru.

Setelah morning reflection selesai, kami bermain board game baru dari PeaceGen, yaitu PeaceBaker. Kami merasakan keseruan saat bermain board game ini. Bahkan kami sampai terbawa emosi dan mengulang-ulang permainan sampai melebihi waktu yang telah dijadwalkan.

Selain bermain board game, kami juga bercerita banyak hal. Mulai dari cerita perkuliahan, pekerjaan, hingga yang sifatnya personal. Di akhir acara seperti biasa kami tutup dengan doa dan foto bersama.

Sampai bertemu di AoP Gathering bulan selanjutnya ya! Ikuti juga kegiatan menarik lainnya dari AoP Purwokerto melalui instagram berikut: @aop_purwokerto

AoP Gathering:

E Meeting Longing and Playing the PeaceBaker Board Game with PeaceGen Chapter Purwokerto

AoP Gathering is routinely held every month, including at PeaceGen Chapter Purwokerto. Implementing this activity was incredible after three months, we were on lockdown level two in Purwokerto and its surroundings.

Actually AoP Purwokerto consists of several regions across Purwokerto, including Purbaling-ga, Cilacap, and Banjarnegara. Due to the area's proximity, they joined the PeaceGen Chapter Purwokerto.

The AoP Gathering met on Sunday, November 17, 2021, at the Bobosan Koi Cafe, Purwokerto. The young people of Purwokerto were surely familiar with this cafe because it is so famous.

AoP Gathering:

E Morning Reflection and Playing the PeaceBaker Board Game

The activity started at 09.00 am, with the input of the morning reflection: 'Conveying longing after a long time no see.' The purpose of this morning's review was to know each other's news.

We are very grateful because doing this activity is respectful and very open, especially when we share and listen to each other's feelings as we remember. That given a few months, we will be dealing with the new year.

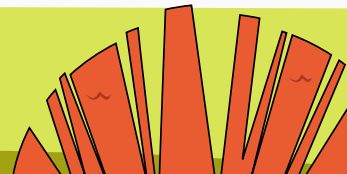

After the morning reflection was over, we played the new board game from PeaceGen, PeaceBaker. Again, we can feel the excitement when playing this board game. We even got carried away with emotions and kept playing the game until it exceeded the scheduled time.

Besides playing board games, we also talked about many things. We were starting from lecture stories, work, and personal stories. As usual, at the end of the event, we closed with a prayer and a group photo.

See you at the AoP Gathering next month! Also, follow other exciting activities from AoP Purwokerto via the following Instagram: @aop_purwokerto
